CONSTITUTION OF QUEENSLAND 2001

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 7 June 2002]

An Act to consolidate particular laws relating to the Constitution of the State of Queensland

CHAPTER 1—PRELIMINARY

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Constitution of Queensland 2001.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on 6 June 2002.

3 Object

This Act declares, consolidates and modernises the Constitution of Queensland.

Note—

However, this Act does not consolidate the following constitutional provisions because of the special additional procedures, including approval by the majority of electors at a referendum, that may be required—

Constitution Act 1867, sections 1, 2, 2A, 11A, 11B and 53

Constitution Act Amendment Act 1890, section 2

Constitution Act Amendment Act 1934, sections 3 and 4.

Further, this Act does not consolidate the Constitution Act 1867, sections 30 and 40.

4 References to the Sovereign

A reference in this Act to the Sovereign is a reference to the Queen or King for the time being, and, if necessary, includes the Queen's or King's heirs and successors.

5 Note in text is part of this Act

A note in the text of this Act is part of this Act.

CHAPTER 2—PARLIAMENT

PART 1—CONSTITUTION AND POWERS OF PARLIAMENT

6 The Parliament

The Constitution Act 1867, section 2A provides for the Parliament in Queensland.

Note—

The Constitution Act 1867, section 2A is subject to section 53 (Certain measures to be supported by referendum) of that Act.¹

Note also the Constitution Act Amendment Act 1934, section 3 (Parliament not to be altered in the direction of re-establishing the Legislative Council or other body except in accordance with this section).²

7 Legislative Assembly

The Constitution Act 1867, section 1 provides for a Legislative Assembly in Queensland.

1 See attachment 1 for a copy of these provisions.

2 See attachment 3 for a copy of this provision.

Note—

The Constitution Act 1867, section 1 is subject to section 53 (Certain measures to be supported by referendum) of that Act.³

8 Law-making power

The Constitution Act 1867, section 2 provides for law-making power in Queensland.

Notes—

The Constitution Act 1867, section 2 is subject to section 53 (Certain measures to be supported by referendum) of that Act.⁴

See also the Australia Act 1986 (Cwlth), sections 2 (Legislative powers of Parliaments of States), 3 (Termination of restrictions on legislative powers of Parliaments of States) and 6 (Manner and form of making certain State laws).

9 Powers, rights and immunities of Legislative Assembly

(1) The powers, rights and immunities of the Legislative Assembly and its members and committees are—

- (a) the powers, rights and immunities defined under an Act; and
- (b) until defined under an Act—the powers, rights and immunities, by custom, statute or otherwise, of the Commons House of Parliament of the United Kingdom and its members and committees at the establishment of the Commonwealth.

Note—

Date of establishment of the Commonwealth—1 January 1901.

(2) In this section—

“rights” includes privileges.

³ See attachment 1 for a copy of these provisions.

⁴ See attachment 1 for a copy of these provisions.

10 Members of Legislative Assembly

The Legislative Assembly is to consist of directly elected members who are eligible⁵ to be elected by the inhabitants of the State who are eligible⁶ to elect members.

11 Number of members of Legislative Assembly

The Legislative Assembly is to consist of 89 members.

12 Division of State into electoral districts

The State is to be divided into the same number of electoral districts as there are members of the Legislative Assembly.

Note—

The process for dividing the State into electoral districts is provided for by the Electoral Act 1992.

13 1 member for each electoral district

Each member of the Legislative Assembly is to represent 1 of the electoral districts.

14 Power to alter system of representation

The Parliament under an Act may—

- (a) vary the number of members to be elected to the Legislative Assembly; and
- (b) vary the electoral districts of the State that are to be represented in the Legislative Assembly; and
- (c) establish new and other electoral districts; and
- (d) vary and regulate the appointment of returning officers and make any new and other provision that it considers convenient for the issuing and return of writs for the election of members to the

⁵ See section 21 (Eligibility to be a candidate and to be elected as a member).

⁶ See the Electoral Act 1992.

Legislative Assembly and the time and place of holding the elections.

PART 2—PROCEDURAL REQUIREMENTS FOR THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

15 Summoning, proroguing and dissolving the Legislative Assembly

(1) The Governor may summon the Legislative Assembly in the Sovereign's name by instrument under the Public Seal of the State.

(2) The Governor may prorogue or dissolve the Legislative Assembly by proclamation or otherwise whenever the Governor considers it expedient.

16 Duration of Legislative Assembly

The Constitution Act Amendment Act 1890, section 2 provides for the duration of the Legislative Assembly.

Note—

The Constitution Act Amendment Act 1890, section 2 is subject to the Constitution Act Amendment Act 1934, section 4 (Duration of Legislative Assembly not to be extended except in accordance with this section).⁷

17 Continuation of Legislative Assembly despite end of Sovereign's reign

If the Sovereign's reign ends, the Legislative Assembly, as constituted immediately before the end of the reign, continues in existence, subject to dissolution under section 15(2), for as long as it would have continued if the Sovereign's reign had not ended.

18 Time and place for sessions of Legislative Assembly

(1) The Governor may set the times and places in Queensland for sessions of the Legislative Assembly that the Governor considers appropriate.

⁷ See attachment 2 for a copy of these provisions.

(2) The Governor may change the times and places if the Governor considers change advisable and more consistent with general convenience and the public welfare.

(3) The Governor must give sufficient notice of a change.

19 Minimum sitting requirement for Legislative Assembly

(1) There must be at least 2 sittings of the Legislative Assembly in every calendar year.

(2) Six months must not pass between a sitting of the Legislative Assembly and the next sitting of the Legislative Assembly.

PART 3—APPROPRIATION FOR LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

20 Separate appropriation for Legislative Assembly

(1) Legislation appropriating the consolidated fund for the Legislative Assembly and the parliamentary service, including salaries payable under the Parliament of Queensland Act 2001 and the Parliamentary Service Act 1988, is to be contained in a Bill separate from any other Bill about any appropriation for any other purpose.

(2) This section is to be read with the Financial Administration and Audit Act 1977.

PART 4—MEMBERS

Division 1—Generally

21 Eligibility to be a candidate and to be elected as a member

(1) A person is eligible to be a candidate, and to be elected, as a member of the Legislative Assembly, if the person—

- (a) is an adult Australian citizen living in Queensland; and
- (b) has any further qualification required under an Act; and
- (c) is not disqualified under an Act.

Note—

For an example of subsection (1)(b) and (c), see the Parliament of Queensland Act 2001, section 64 (Qualifications to be a candidate and be elected a member).

(2) Subsection (1) is subject to any conditions imposed under an Act.

22 No member to sit or vote without first taking oath or making affirmation

(1) No member may sit or vote in the Legislative Assembly unless the member has taken or made the oath or affirmation of allegiance and of office in schedule 1.⁸

(2) The oath must be taken or the affirmation must be made in the presence of the Governor or a person authorised by the Governor to administer the oath or affirmation.

(3) A member “takes” the member’s seat on taking the oath or making the affirmation.

Division 2—Members who are Ministers or Parliamentary Secretaries

23 Ministers

Chapter 3, part 3⁹ contains provisions about the appointment of members of the Legislative Assembly as Ministers or acting Ministers.

24 Appointment of Parliamentary Secretaries

(1) The Governor in Council may appoint members of the Legislative Assembly as Parliamentary Secretaries.

(2) However, a Minister or member of Executive Council may not be appointed as a Parliamentary Secretary.

8 Schedule 1 (Oaths and affirmations)

9 Chapter 3 (Governor and Executive Government), part 3 (Cabinet and Ministers of the State)

25 Functions of Parliamentary Secretary

A Parliamentary Secretary has the functions decided by the Premier.

26 Length of Parliamentary Secretary's appointment

(1) The appointment of a member of the Legislative Assembly as a Parliamentary Secretary ends on the polling day for the next general election after the appointment.

(2) However, the appointment ends before the polling day when any of the following happen—

- (a) the member's seat becomes vacant otherwise than because the Legislative Assembly is dissolved or expires by the passage of time;
- (b) the member resigns as Parliamentary Secretary by written notice of resignation given to the Premier;
- (c) the member is appointed as a Minister or member of Executive Council or is appointed to act as a Minister under section 46;¹⁰
- (d) the appointment is ended by the Governor in Council under subsection (3).

(3) The Governor in Council, at any time, may end the appointment for reasons the Governor in Council considers sufficient or for no reason.

(4) In this section—

“general election” means an election for the members of the Legislative Assembly.

¹⁰ Section 46 (Member may act for a Minister)

CHAPTER 3—GOVERNOR AND EXECUTIVE GOVERNMENT

PART 1—INTERPRETATION

27 Governor in Council

The Governor in Council is the Governor acting with the advice of Executive Council.

PART 2—GOVERNOR

28 Definition for pt 2

In this part—

“Royal Sign Manual” means the signature or royal hand of the Sovereign.

29 Governor

(1) There must be a Governor of Queensland.

(2) The Governor must be appointed by commission under the Royal Sign Manual.

30 Office of Governor

The Constitution Act 1867, sections 11A and 11B contain provisions about the office of Governor.

Note—

The Constitution Act 1867, sections 11A and 11B are subject to section 53 (Certain measures to be supported by referendum) of that Act.¹¹

¹¹ See attachment 1 for a copy of these provisions.

31 Requirements concerning commission and oath or affirmation

(1) Before undertaking any duties as Governor, a person appointed as Governor must, in the presence of the Chief Justice, or the next most senior judge of the Supreme Court of Queensland who is able to act, (the “judicial officer”) and of at least 2 members of Executive Council—

- (a) cause the commission appointing the person as Governor to be read and published at the seat of government in the State; and
- (b) take or make the oath or affirmation of allegiance and of office in schedule 1,¹² subject to and in accordance with the law and practice of the State.

(2) The judicial officer must administer the oath or affirmation.

32 Termination of appointment as Governor

(1) The appointment of a person as Governor may be terminated only by instrument under the Royal Sign Manual.

(2) The instrument takes effect on its publication in the gazette or at a later time stated in the instrument.

33 General power of Governor

The Governor is authorised and required to do all things that belong to the Governor’s office under any law.

34 Power of Governor—Ministers

Ministers hold office at the pleasure of the Governor who, in the exercise of the Governor’s power to appoint and dismiss the Ministers, is not subject to direction by any person and is not limited as to the Governor’s sources of advice.

35 Power of Governor—removal or suspension of officer

(1) This section does not limit the power of the Governor under another provision of this Act or another Act.

12 Schedule 1 (Oaths and affirmations)

(2) To the extent that it is within the Governor's power and if the Governor considers there is sufficient reason, the Governor may remove or suspend a person holding an office or place under an appointment made in the name or under the authority of the Sovereign.

36 Power of Governor—relief for offender

(1) This section does not limit the operation of another Act.

(2) In relation to an offence against a law of the State, the Governor may grant the offender, in the name and on behalf of the Sovereign—

- (a) a pardon, a commutation of sentence or a reprieve of execution of sentence for a period the Governor considers appropriate; or
- (b) a remission of a fine, penalty, forfeiture or other consequence of conviction of the offender.

(3) The grant may be unconditional or subject to lawful conditions.

37 Power of Governor—public seal

The Governor may keep and use the Public Seal of the State for sealing all instruments made or passed in the Sovereign's name.

38 Continued use of seal despite end of Sovereign's reign

(1) This section applies if the Sovereign's reign ends and, immediately before the end of the reign, a seal for Queensland issued by the Sovereign is in existence.

(2) The seal, until a new seal is issued by the next Sovereign, may continue to be used as if the Sovereign's reign had not ended.

39 Statutory powers when Sovereign personally in State

(1) When the Sovereign is personally present in the State, any power under an Act exercisable by the Governor may be exercised by the Sovereign.

(2) The Governor has the same powers in relation to an act done, or an instrument made, by the Sovereign under this section as the Governor has in relation to an act done, or an instrument made, by the Governor himself or herself.

(3) This section does not affect or prevent the exercise of any power under an Act by the Governor.

(4) In this section, references to the Governor or to the Sovereign include references to the Governor, or to the Sovereign, acting with the advice of Executive Council.

40 Delegation by Governor to Deputy Governor

(1) The Governor may delegate all or any of the Governor's powers to the person mentioned in subsection (2) during and only during any or all periods—

- (a) the Governor is temporarily absent for a short period from the seat of government, except when administering the Government of the Commonwealth; or
- (b) the Governor is ill and there are reasonable grounds for believing the illness will be of short duration.

(2) The person to whom the Governor's powers may be delegated is—

- (a) the Lieutenant-Governor; or
- (b) if there is no Lieutenant-Governor in the State and able to act—the Chief Justice; or
- (c) if there is no Chief Justice in the State and able to act—the next most senior judge of the Supreme Court of Queensland who is in the State and able to act.

(3) The delegation must be by instrument under the Public Seal of the State and specify the powers given to the delegate.

(4) A person exercises the Governor's powers under a delegation as Deputy Governor.

41 Administration of Government by Acting Governor

(1) The person mentioned in subsection (3) must administer the Government of the State during any period—

- (a) the office of Governor is vacant; or
- (b) the Governor assumes the administration of the Government of the Commonwealth; or

- (c) the Governor is absent from the State and the Governor's powers are not being exercised by a Deputy Governor under section 40; or
- (d) the Governor is incapable of performing the duties of office and the Governor's powers are not being exercised by a Deputy Governor under section 40.

(2) The Governor is taken not to be absent from the State for subsection (1)(c) if the Governor is beyond the boundaries of the State in the course of travel from 1 part of the State to another part of the State.

(3) The person who must administer the Government of the State is—

- (a) the Lieutenant-Governor; or
- (b) if there is no Lieutenant-Governor in the State and able to act—the Chief Justice; or
- (c) if there is no Chief Justice in the State and able to act—the next most senior judge of the Supreme Court of Queensland who is in the State and able to act.

(4) A person administering the Government of the State under this section acts as Governor and performs the Governor's functions and exercises the Governor's powers as Acting Governor.

(5) Before assuming the administration of the Government of the State, the person must have previously taken or made, or must take or make as soon as is reasonably practicable after the occasion arises for the person to administer the State, the oath or affirmation of allegiance and of office in schedule 1.¹³

(6) The oath must be taken or the affirmation made in the presence of—

- (a) the Chief Justice or the next most senior judge of the Supreme Court of Queensland who is able to act (the “judicial officer”); and
- (b) at least 2 members of Executive Council.

(7) The judicial officer must administer the oath or affirmation.

(8) The person must not continue to administer the Government of the State after the Governor or some other person holding an office prior in title to administer the Government of the State under subsections (1) and (3) has, by proclamation, given notice that the Governor or other person has assumed or resumed, or is about to assume or resume, the administration of the Government of the State.

13 Schedule 1 (Oaths and affirmations)

PART 3—CABINET AND MINISTERS OF THE STATE

42 Cabinet

(1) There must be a Cabinet consisting of the Premier and a number of other Ministers appointed under section 43.

(2) The Cabinet is collectively responsible to the Parliament.

43 Appointment of Ministers of the State

(1) The Governor, by proclamation, may declare the offices to which persons may be appointed as Ministers of the State.

(2) The Governor, by commission, may appoint a person as a Minister of the State.

(3) To remove any doubt, it is declared that the Attorney-General is a Minister.

(4) The maximum number of Ministers at any time is 19.

(5) A Minister must, before entering on the duties of the Minister's office, take or make the oath or affirmation of allegiance and of office in schedule 1.¹⁴

(6) The oath must be taken or the affirmation made in the presence of the Governor or a person authorised by the Governor to administer the oath or affirmation.

44 Administrative arrangements

The Governor in Council, by order published in the gazette, may make administrative arrangements doing either or both of the following—

- (a) distributing the public business, or any of that business, among the Ministers;

14 Schedule 1 (Oaths and affirmations)

- (b) declaring either or both of the following—
- (i) the administrative units, or any of the administrative units, or the parts of the administrative units administered by each Minister respectively, or any Minister;
 - (ii) the Acts, or any of the Acts, or the parts of the Acts administered by each Minister respectively, or by any Minister.

45 Minister may act for another Minister

(1) The Governor or Premier, in writing, may appoint a Minister to act as another Minister.

(2) The Minister may be appointed to perform all or any of the other Minister's functions and exercise all or any of the other Minister's powers.

(3) However, an appointment by the Premier may not be for a period of more than 14 days.

46 Member may act for a Minister

(1) Without limiting section 45, the Governor, by proclamation, may appoint a member of the Legislative Assembly to act as a Minister for any or all periods the Minister is—

- (a) absent from the State in the course of the duties of the office; or
- (b) absent on leave given under section 47.

(2) The member may be appointed to perform all or any of a Minister's functions and exercise all or any of a Minister's powers.

(3) The member, before entering on the duties of the office, must take or make the oath or affirmation of allegiance and of office in schedule 1.¹⁵

(4) The oath must be taken or the affirmation made in the presence of the Governor or a person authorised by the Governor to administer the oath or affirmation.

(5) A person who is already a Minister may not be appointed under subsection (1).

15 Schedule 1 (Oaths and affirmations)

(6) An appointment under subsection (1) has effect despite section 43(4).

47 Sick leave

The Governor, by proclamation, may give a Minister who is ill leave of absence with pay for a period of not more than 6 months.

PART 4—EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

48 Executive Council

(1) There must be an Executive Council for the State.

(2) Executive Council consists of the persons appointed as members of the Executive Council by the Governor by instrument under the Public Seal of the State.

(3) A member of Executive Council must, before entering on the duties of the member's office, take or make the oath or affirmation of office and of secrecy in schedule 1.¹⁶

(4) The oath must be taken or the affirmation made in the presence of the Governor or a person authorised by the Governor to administer the oath or affirmation.

49 Length of appointment as member of Executive Council

The appointment of a person as a member of Executive Council ends only on the happening of either of the following—

- (a) the person's resignation as a member of Executive Council;
- (b) the person's removal as a member of Executive Council by the Governor.

¹⁶ Schedule 1 (Oaths and affirmations)

50 Meetings of Executive Council

(1) The Governor must preside over a meeting of Executive Council.

(2) However, if, for good reason, the Governor can not preside, a meeting of Executive Council must be presided over by—

- (a) if the Governor has appointed a member of Executive Council to preside—the member; or
- (b) if the Governor has not appointed a member to preside—the member who is taken to be the most senior member present.

(3) Executive Council must not deal with any business at a meeting unless—

- (a) it has been summoned to meet by the Governor’s authority; and
- (b) at least 2 members, other than any presiding member, are present for the entire meeting.

PART 5—POWERS OF THE STATE*Division 1—General51 Powers of the State

(1) The Executive Government of the State of Queensland (the “State”) has all the powers, and the legal capacity, of an individual.

(2) The State may exercise its powers—

- (a) inside and outside Queensland; and
- (b) inside and outside Australia.

(3) This part does not limit the State’s powers.

Example—

This part does not affect any power a Minister has apart from this part to bind the State by contract.

Division 2—Commercial activities52 Definitions for div 2

In this division—

“commercial activities” includes—

- (a) commercial activities that are not within the ordinary functions of the State; and
 - (b) commercial activities of a competitive nature; and
 - (c) activities declared by an Act to be commercial activities;
- but does not include activities declared by an Act not to be commercial activities.

“State” includes a public sector unit.

53 Commercial activities by State

(1) The State may carry out commercial activities.

(2) This section is sufficient statutory authority for the State to carry out a commercial activity.

(3) Commercial activities may be carried out—

- (a) without further statutory authority; and
- (b) without prior appropriation from the consolidated fund for the purpose.

(4) Commercial activities may be carried out—

- (a) inside and outside Queensland; and
- (b) inside and outside Australia.

54 Commercial activities by Minister

A Minister may carry out commercial activities for the State.

55 Delegation by Minister

(1) A Minister may delegate a power of the State to an appropriately qualified officer of the State.

(2) An officer of the State may subdelegate the delegated power to another appropriately qualified officer of the State.

(3) In this section—

“appropriately qualified”, in relation to a delegated power, includes having the qualifications, experience or standing appropriate to exercise the power.

Example of standing—

A person’s level of employment in the entity in which the person is employed.

“officer of the State” means—

- (a) a chief executive, or employee, of a public sector unit; or
- (b) an officer of the public service.

CHAPTER 4—COURTS

56 Definitions for ch 4

In this chapter—

“judge” means a judge of the Supreme Court or District Court.

“office” means any of the following offices—

- (a) Chief Justice of Queensland;
- (b) President of the Court of Appeal;
- (c) Senior Judge Administrator;
- (d) judge of appeal of the Supreme Court;
- (e) judge of the Supreme Court;
- (f) Chief Judge of the District Court;
- (g) judge of the District Court.

57 Supreme Court and District Court

There must be a Supreme Court of Queensland and a District Court of Queensland.

58 Supreme Court's superior jurisdiction

(1) The Supreme Court has all jurisdiction necessary for the administration of justice in Queensland.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the court—

- (a) is the superior court of record in Queensland and the supreme court of general jurisdiction in and for the State; and
- (b) has, subject to the Commonwealth Constitution, unlimited jurisdiction at law, in equity and otherwise.

59 Appointment of judges

(1) The Governor in Council, by commission, may appoint a barrister or solicitor of the Supreme Court of at least 5 years standing as a judge.

(2) A judge must, before entering on the duties of an office, take or make the oath or affirmation of allegiance and of office in schedule 1.¹⁷

(3) The oath must be taken or the affirmation made in the presence of the Governor or a person authorised by the Governor to administer the oath or affirmation.

60 Length of judge's appointment

(1) A judge holds an office as a judge indefinitely during good behaviour.

(2) However, the Supreme Court of Queensland Act 1991 and the District Court of Queensland Act 1967 provide for a judge's retirement.

(3) A judge may resign an office by written notice of resignation given to the Governor.

61 Removal from office for misbehaviour or incapacity

(1) A judge may not be removed from an office other than under this section.

(2) A judge may be removed from an office by the Governor in Council, on an address of the Legislative Assembly, for—

17 Schedule 1 (Oaths and affirmations)

- (a) proved misbehaviour justifying removal from the office; or
- (b) proved incapacity to perform the duties of the office.

(3) A judge's misbehaviour justifying removal from an office is proved only if the Legislative Assembly accepts a finding of a tribunal, stated in a report of the tribunal, that, on the balance of probabilities, the judge has misbehaved in a way that justifies removal from the office.

(4) A judge's incapacity to perform the duties of an office is proved only if the Legislative Assembly accepts a finding of a tribunal, stated in a report of the tribunal, that, on the balance of probabilities, the judge is incapable of performing the duties of the office.

(5) The tribunal is to be established under an Act.

(6) The tribunal has the functions, powers, protection and immunity given under an Act.

(7) The tribunal must consist of at least 3 members.

(8) The members are to be appointed by resolution of the Legislative Assembly.

(9) A person is eligible for appointment as a member only if the person is a former judge or justice of a State or Federal superior court in Australia.

(10) However, a person is not eligible for appointment as a member if the person and the judge who may be removed were judges of the same court at the same time.

62 Judge's salary

(1) A judge must be paid a salary at the rate applicable to the judge's office.

(2) The amount of the salary may not be decreased.

(3) The payment of the amount for judges' salaries from the consolidated fund is authorised and the consolidated fund is appropriated for the purpose.

63 Protection if office abolished

(1) This section applies if an office held by a judge is abolished either directly or by abolition of a court or part of a court.

(2) The judge is entitled at least, without loss of salary, to be appointed to, and to hold, another office of equivalent or higher status in the same court in which the judge held the abolished office or in another court, unless the judge already holds that type of office.

(3) The entitlement mentioned in subsection (2)—

- (a) continues for the period during which the judge would have been entitled to hold the abolished office, subject to removal under section 61; and
- (b) lapses if the judge fails to take up an appointment to the other office or resigns from it.

CHAPTER 5—REVENUE

64 Consolidated fund

All taxes, imposts, rates and duties and other revenues of the State are to form 1 consolidated fund to be appropriated for the public service of the State in the way, and subject to the charges, specified by an Act.

65 Requirement to pay tax, impost, rate or duty

A requirement to pay a tax, impost, rate or duty of the State must be authorised under an Act.

66 Payment from consolidated fund

(1) The payment of an amount from the consolidated fund must be authorised under an Act.

(2) Further, the Act authorising the payment must specify the purpose for which the payment is made.

(3) This section does not apply in relation to the costs, charges and expenses relating to the collection and management of the consolidated fund.

67 Charges on consolidated fund

(1) The consolidated fund is permanently charged with all the costs, charges and expenses relating to the collection and management of the fund.

(2) The costs, charges and expenses are the first charge on the consolidated fund.

(3) However, the costs, charges and expenses may be reviewed and audited under an Act.

68 Governor's recommendation required for appropriation

(1) The Legislative Assembly must not originate or pass a vote, resolution or Bill for the appropriation of—

- (a) an amount from the consolidated fund; or
- (b) an amount required to be paid to the consolidated fund;

that has not first been recommended by a message of the Governor.

(2) The message must be given to the Legislative Assembly during the session in which the vote, resolution or Bill is intended to be passed.

CHAPTER 6—LANDS69 Lands

(1) The Constitution Act 1867, section 30¹⁸ gives the Parliament law-making power in relation to the waste lands of the Crown in Queensland.

(2) The Constitution Act 1867, section 40 vests particular rights in relation to the waste lands of the Crown in Queensland in the Parliament.

18 See attachment 4 for a copy of the Constitution Act 1867, sections 30 and 40.

CHAPTER 7—LOCAL GOVERNMENT

PART 1—SYSTEM OF LOCAL GOVERNMENT

70 System of local government

- (1) There must be a system of local government in Queensland.
- (2) The system consists of a number of local governments.

71 Requirements for a local government

(1) A local government is an elected body that is charged with the good rule and local government of a part of Queensland allocated to the body.

(2) Another Act, whenever made, may provide for the way in which a local government is constituted and the nature and extent of its functions and powers.

(3) Despite subsection (1), another Act, whenever made, may provide for the appointment of 1 or more bodies or persons to perform all or any of a local government's functions and to exercise all or any of a local government's powers and to be taken to be a local government—

- (a) during a suspension of a local government's councillors under section 74; or
- (b) if a local government is dissolved or unable to be properly elected—until a local government has been properly elected.

(4) In subsection (3)—

“local government” includes a joint local government.

PART 2—PROCEDURE LIMITING DISSOLUTION OF LOCAL GOVERNMENT AND INTERIM ARRANGEMENT

72 Definition for pt 2

In this part—

“Minister” means the Minister who administers the provision under which the local government may be dissolved.

73 Dissolution of local government must be tabled

The Minister must, within 14 days after an instrument purporting to dissolve a local government is made, table a copy of the instrument in the Legislative Assembly.

74 Suspension until dissolution ratified

From the time an instrument purporting to dissolve a local government is made until it is ratified under section 75 or its effect ends under section 76, it has the effect only of suspending the local government’s councillors from office.

Note—

Section 71 permits another Act to provide for the appointment of 1 or more bodies or persons to perform all or any functions and exercise all or any powers of the local government and to be taken to be the local government during the suspension.

75 Ratification of dissolution

(1) The Legislative Assembly, on the Minister’s motion, may ratify the dissolution of the local government within 14 sitting days after a copy of the instrument purporting to dissolve the local government is tabled.

(2) If the Legislative Assembly ratifies the dissolution, the local government is dissolved in accordance with the instrument from the time of ratification.

76 No tabling or ratification of dissolution

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) a copy of the instrument purporting to dissolve the local government is not tabled under section 73; or
- (b) the Legislative Assembly refuses to ratify the dissolution of a local government moved by the Minister; or
- (c) at the end of 14 sitting days after a copy of the instrument purporting to dissolve the local government is tabled—

- (i) the Minister has not moved that the dissolution be ratified; or
- (ii) the Legislative Assembly has not ratified the dissolution,
even though the Minister has moved that it be ratified.

(2) The effect of the instrument purporting to dissolve the local government ends.

(3) The suspension from office of the local government's councillors ends and they are reinstated in their respective offices.

(4) The appointment of a body or person appointed to perform all or any functions and exercise all or any powers of the local government because of its purported dissolution ends.

PART 3—SPECIAL PROCEDURES FOR PARTICULAR LOCAL GOVERNMENT BILLS

77 Procedure for Bill affecting a local government

(1) This section applies for a Bill for an Act that would—

- (a) be administered by a Minister who administers a provision of the Local Government Act 1993; and
- (b) affect local governments generally or any of them.

(2) The member of the Legislative Assembly who proposes to introduce the Bill in the Legislative Assembly must, if the member considers it practicable, arrange for a summary of the Bill to be given to a body representing local governments in the State a reasonable time before the Bill is introduced in the Legislative Assembly.

78 Procedure for Bill ending system of local government

(1) This section applies for a Bill for an Act ending the system of local government in Queensland.

(2) The Bill may be presented for assent only if a proposal that the system of local government should end has been approved by a majority vote of the electors voting on the proposal.

(3) The Bill has no effect as an Act if assented to after presentation in contravention of subsection (2).

(4) The vote about the proposal must be taken on a day that is more than 1 month but less than 6 months before the Bill is introduced in the Legislative Assembly.

(5) The vote must be taken in the way prescribed by an Act.

(6) An elector may bring a proceeding in the Supreme Court for a declaration, injunction or other remedy to enforce this section either before or after the Bill is presented for assent.

(7) In this section—

“elector” means a person entitled to vote at a general election for members of the Legislative Assembly.

CHAPTER 8—MISCELLANEOUS

79 Issue of compliance not justiciable

Without affecting the justiciability of any other issue under this Act, it is declared that the issue of compliance with section 31, 40, 41, 48 or 50¹⁹ is not justiciable in any court.

80 Continued holding of office under the Crown despite end of Sovereign’s reign

(1) This section applies if the Sovereign’s reign ends and a person is holding an office under the Crown immediately before the end of the Sovereign’s reign.

(2) The person continues holding the office for as long as the person would have held the office if the Sovereign’s reign had not ended.

19 Section 31 (Requirements concerning commission and oath or affirmation), 40 (Delegation by Governor to Deputy Governor), 41 (Administration of Government by Acting Governor), 48 (Executive Council) or 50 (Meetings of Executive Council)

(3) If, before the end of the Sovereign's reign, the person had taken any oath or made any affirmation provided for under an Act, the person is not required, because the Sovereign's reign has ended, to again take the oath or make the affirmation.

(4) If the oath taken or the affirmation made before the end of the Sovereign's reign related only to the then reigning Sovereign, the oath or affirmation is taken to relate to the then reigning Sovereign and the Sovereign's heirs and successors.

CHAPTER 9—TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

81 Continuation of membership of Legislative Assembly

A person who, immediately before the commencement of section 10,²⁰ was a member of the Legislative Assembly continues as a member of the Legislative Assembly and is taken to have satisfied the oath or affirmation requirement under section 22.²¹

24 Section 41 (Administration of Government by Acting Governor)

Governor) Act 1987, section 9(1),²⁵ as in force before it was repealed, is taken to have satisfied the oath or affirmation requirement under section 41.

84 Continuation of appointment as Minister of State

A person who, immediately before the commencement of section 43,²⁶ was a Minister continues as a Minister of the State and is taken to have satisfied the oath or affirmation requirement under section 43.

85 Continuation of appointment as Parliamentary Secretary

A person who, immediately before the commencement of section 24,²⁷ was a Parliamentary Secretary continues as a Parliamentary Secretary.

86 Continuation of administrative arrangements

The administrative arrangements as in force immediately before the commencement of section 44²⁸ are not affected by the section's commencement.

87 Continuation of membership of Executive Council

A person who, immediately before the commencement of section 48,²⁹ was a member of Executive Council continues as a member of Executive Council and is taken to have satisfied the oath or affirmation requirement under section 48.

88 Continuation of Supreme Court

(1) The Supreme Court of Queensland as formerly established as the superior court of record in Queensland is continued in existence.

(2) This Act does not—

25 Constitution (Office of Governor) Act 1987, section 9 (Administration of Government in absence etc. of Governor)

26 Section 43 (Appointment of Ministers of the State)

27 Section 24 (Appointment of Parliamentary Secretaries)

28 Section 44 (Administrative arrangements)

29 Section 48 (Executive Council)

- (a) take away, lessen or impair any jurisdiction or power that was, immediately before the commencement of section 58,³⁰ vested in or capable of being exercised by the court or 1 or more judges of the court; or
- (b) affect anything done or existing in relation to the court before the commencement of section 58.

89 Continuation of District Court

(1) The District Court as formerly established is continued in existence as the District Court of Queensland.

(2) This Act does not—

- (a) take away, lessen or impair any jurisdiction or power that was, immediately before the commencement of section 57,³¹ vested in or capable of being exercised by the court or 1 or more judges of the court; or
- (b) affect anything done or existing in relation to the court before the commencement of section 57.³²

90 Continuation of appointment of judges

(1) A person who, immediately before the commencement of section 59,³³ was a Supreme Court judge or District Court judge continues as a Supreme Court judge or District Court judge.

(2) A person who, immediately before the commencement of section 59, held an office, is taken to have satisfied the oath or affirmation requirement under section 59 in relation to the office.

(3) In this section—

“office” see section 56.

30 Section 58 (Supreme Court’s superior jurisdiction)

31 Section 57 (Supreme Court and District Court)

32 See also the District Court of Queensland Act 1967, section 140 (Transitional—change of name to District Court of Queensland).

33 Section 59 (Appointment of judges)

91 Continuation of consolidated fund

The consolidated fund in existence immediately before the commencement of section 64³⁴ is taken to be the consolidated fund.

92 Legislative Council references

A reference in an Act or document to the legislature, or to the Parliament, or to both Houses of Parliament, or other reference, that, if the Constitution Act Amendment Act 1922, as repealed by this Act, had not been passed, would be taken to include a reference to the Legislative Council, is to be taken to refer only to the Queen and the Legislative Assembly of Queensland, or only to the Legislative Assembly, as the context may require.

Note—

The Constitution Act Amendment Act 1922 abolished the Legislative Council of Queensland.

93 Administrator references

If, before the commencement of section 41,³⁵ there is a reference in an Act or document to an Administrator, then, from the commencement, if the context permits, the reference is taken to be a reference to an Acting Governor.

CHAPTER 10—CONSEQUENTIAL AMENDMENTS AND REPEALS

95 Repeals

(1) The laws mentioned in schedule 3³⁶ are repealed.

34 Section 64 (Consolidated fund)

35 Section 41 (Administration of Government by Acting Governor)

36 Schedule 3 (Repealed laws)

(2) The Imperial laws mentioned in schedule 4³⁷ are repealed so far as they are part of the law of Queensland.
